COURSE OF STUDY.

---

There are three Departments in the institution—the Primary, Preparatory and Collegiate.

The Primary Department cannot be completed in less than two years; the English Preparatory, two years; the Classical Preparatory adds another year, and the regular College Course, four years more, making nine years of constant study for a Classical Student. This is but three years less than required by many German Universities. The English and Scientific Course shortens the above one year.

The above course has been prepared, after a careful consideration and comparison of the courses of many female colleges, and high schools. For thoroughness and practicality it cannot fail to commend itself to good educators. It is not surpassed in completeness by any similar course that we know of east or west. Ladies completing it will receive the degree of Mistress of English Literature.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

LOCATION.

The Valparaiso Male and Female College, under the patronage of the Northwestern Indiana Conference of the M. E. Church, is located in the thriving and healthy town of Valparaiso. The place is easy of access, being on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, forty-four miles east of Chicago, and nine miles west of Wanatah, the crossing of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad. It is distant but twelve miles from Hebron on the Cincinnati and Chicago Air Line Railroad, and nine miles from Westville with both of which places we have a daily line of coaches.

The College edifice is a beautiful and commodious building. The site is a very commanding one, and the view from the cupola is not easily surpassed. The College Campus is a natural grove of five acres, carpeted with luxuriant grass, and offering a grateful shade for summer and a shelter from the storms of winter.

BUILDINGS.

The cut in the front is lithographed from the drawings of the architect. The center building is already erected, and the right wing and tower will soon be under contract; the other wing as soon as needed. Thus when finished, there will be one of the finest College edifices in the country.

APPARATUS AND CABINET.

The College has a full supply of Geographical and Anatomical maps and charts, Astronomical, Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, and a fairly started Geological Cabinet. Contributions to the latter will be most thankfully received.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies connected with the College. The Philological for the gentlemen, and the Calliopean for the ladies.

They have a newly-carpeted and furnished Hall, and libraries fully started. Their weekly meetings, for social and literary improvement, are well attended, and the purposes for which they were organized well sustained.

EXPENSES.

BOARDING.—Boarding is cheaper here than at any other place in Northern Indiana; also, very many students by clubbing together board themselves at almost half the usual rates. Comfortable and cheap rooms can always be procured for this purpose. Students need but little spending money. Parents and guardians would do a good thing for their children and wards, if they would require them to keep, in a memorandum book, an exact account of all their expenditures, from day to day, throughout the term.

RATES OF TUITION.

Primary—First Grade, per term.....	$ 3.50
“ Second “ per term.....	4.50
English Preparatory “ per term.....	$6.00 to 8.00
Classical “ per term.....	8.00 to 10.00
Collegiate.....	10.00
Music—Piano, Melodeon and Guitar.....	10.00
French and German, each.....	4.00
Janitor fee in Primary Department, fall and spring terms.....	50
“ “ Collegiate and Preparatory fall and spring terms.....	1 00

For the winter term, owing to the great advance of labor and fuel, the Janitor fees for the above departments will be fifty per cent higher.

All tuition bills must be settled in advance; and no deduction will be made after entering school, except for protracted personal sickness. Where students cannot enter at the beginning of the term, they will be charged from the time of entering, provided the absence amounts to more than a week or two, but then not less than a half term's tuition, and full janitor fee will be charged. Absence of a day, or even a week, now and then, will not be deducted; for it costs more to teach irregular students, than punctual ones, besides the latter usually honor an institution, while the former invariably dishonor it.

Vocal music, painting and drawing will be taught at the usual rates.

DEGREES.

Believing that honors should be given to the worthy, regardless of sex, this institution presents a Classical Course of study, which is deemed a liberal one, and whoever completes it is entitled to the degree of Bachelor of Liberal Arts. Any one completing the course excepting the Greek and Latin above the preparatory year, or studying the French or German as an equivalent for the Junior and Senior Mathematics will be entitled to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

The degree of Master of Arts will be conferred on the payment of the usual fee of five dollars upon every Bachelor of Arts of three years' standing, who, during the interval, has sustained a good moral character and pursued professional or scientific studies.

Young Ladies completing the English and Scientific course will be entitled to the degree of Mistress of English Literature.

NORMAL CLASS.

Such are the demands for educated teachers both in the theory and practice of teaching, that we have organized a Normal department in the school for this special purpose. Teachers desiring to enter the same, and teach the coming winter will find this just the place to spend eight or nine weeks and then go to their respective schools. All of the studies of the common school will be carefully reviewed, and lectures on the Theory and Practice of teaching will be given through the session.

GOVERNMENT.

The Government of this Institution will be strictly parental, and is designed to be at once preventive and corrective. A mild but firm course of discipline will be maintained. The higher and nobler faculties of the students will be appealed to, but should this fail the means will not be found wanting to correct the evil. It is an established usage of all Colleges, that a student having once entered on its curriculum is amenable to its rules and regulations until he severs legitimately this relation.

REQUIREMENTS AND PROHIBITIONS.—Students are required to attend Church at least once on Sunday, and to be present at the Sabbath Lecture in the afternoon. The promiscuous association of young ladies and gentlemen will not be permitted, and correct social habits, and polite manners will be enforced. Punctual attendance at recitations, public college exercises and prayers, and the observance of study hours will be required of every student. Unkind treatment of fellow-students; disrespect towards teachers; irreverence at church; leaving town without permission; absence from rooms at late hours of night without permission; the use of profane or obscene language; card-playing, and gambling of every kind; visiting gambling or drinking saloons; drinking intoxicating liquors; disorderly conduct, such as running, jumping, hallooing and boisterous singing in the College building; marking or disfiguring the College walls or furniture; all and each are strictly and totally prohibited.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

We insert a few select advertisements in the closing pages of this Catalogue. We have known the parties more or less for years. We can recommend them as gentlemen of reliability, and worthy of an extended patronage. It is not necessary to enter any defence for inserting advertisements in the catalogue of a literary institution, since catalogues, registers, and circulars are all only advertisements; still by making a catalogue pay its own expense, we can make the expenses of an institution that much lighter to students.
